From the Directors Desk...

Greetings Kidzone families! Thank you to everyone who participated in our Valentines Day Party. The kids really enjoyed all the treats! This month we will be doing some fun Dr. Seuss themed events in honor of his birthday. We will be focusing on the importance of literacy by holding a "read in". This even will be held on the 20th of this month. Family members are invited to come read their favorite books with the students. You can bring your favorite from home; or Kidzone will be

The other big thing this month is the preschoolers the choice of a spring photo, or a photo of the child in a cap and gown. More info. on this to come!

This will be held on March 31st. At this event we will be registering students for fall; as well as showcasing our new phonics curriculum- Zoophonics. Please come and join us for a treat, and an information session.

Kidzone will be having a Spring Picture day on April 9th.

Reminders: Please check your parent folders regularly. Please write your child's name on everything that belongs to them.

Blessings,
